Since 1964, when the Student Ambassador Program began, 172 student ambassadors have traveled to one or the other of the sister cities.

This year students from Montebello will be in Ashiya from August 1st to 21st and spend one week each with a host family. There will be a courtesy visit to the Mayor, a Summer Carnival, a Dragon Boat race, and other events through which they will deepen relations with our citizens; there will also be a one-day trip to Hiroshima.

Students from Ashiya will be in Montebello for around 3 weeks, from August 8th to the 29th, and will spend one week each with a host family there. The following are their profiles and aspirations.

Fiscal Year 2007 Resident (City and Prefectural) Tax A uniform rate of 10% has been set No change in total tax burden

The three-category, progressive excess income tax system used until last year has been changed. Starting in fiscal 2007 all will be taxed at a uniform rate of 10% regardless of amount of income. Thus, the rate for those with income of 2 million yen or less will go up from 5% to 10%. People earning between 2 and 7 million will experience no change in taxes on income in excess of 2 million, but the first

2 million will be taxed at 10% instead of 5% as before.

Government policy is to shift tax sources to the regional level. The uniform rate of 10% brings local resident taxes more into line with the national tax system.

Besides these changes, the fixed rate tax reduction (tax credit given on the basis of income tax bracket) was abolished. Also, the tax exemption for people over 65 will gradually be abolished.

The result of the change in tax rate system alone will not result in greater local tax burdens, but the total effect of other tax changes may mean that taxpayers will be paying more than before. Resident Tax Subsection, Tax Section Tel: 38-2016
